ANTI-CIGARTTE LEAGUES FORMED

In all the Public Schools of Ogden -Result of Talks by Dr. Brown.

CASE AGAINST JUDGE HOWELL

Death of Rasmus Dahl-Highwaymen Held for Trial-Briefs and Personals,

A busy day was spent yesterday by Dr. Willis Brown and others interested in the anti-cigarette leagues. He made about a dozen addresses and organized leagues in a number of the public schools. The principal meetings were held in the Grand Opera House in the evening, the first at 7 o'clock, when the lecturer made an address particularly for the boys. There were about 1,000 young people in attendance. and the lecturer succeeded in arousing a great deal of interest and enthus!asm. His recital of the evil effects of the cigarette habit apparently made a strong impression on the audience,

At 8 o'clock he addressed an audience of about 1,500, including a large number of school children, as well as grown folks. He paid an especial com-pilment to S. J. Griffin, president of the local anti-cigarette league, for his work and that of the league in Ogden. During the day Mr. Brown visited a number of the public schools in com-pany with Supt, Allison. He also went to the Weber Stake academy. Local school leagues were organized with a and girl leader in each school

COMPLAINT FILED.

The complaint against Judge-elect J. A. Howell, contesting his right to sit as judge of the Second district court, was filed at noon yesterday in the clerk's office of the district court. Danlel Hamer appears as the plaintiff in the proceedings. The attention of Judge Rolapp was at once brought to the matter, and he took judicial notice of the fact that he himself would be disqualified from hearing the case, and he therefore sent a request to Judge C. W. Morse of the Third judicial district to come to Ogden and hear all further proceedings in the case. The date for hearing was tentatively set for Jan. 10, but this date is subject to change on a showing by either side. The filing of the action with the numerous sen-sational charges aroused the keenest interest and was the subject of general discussion all over the city. It was uniformly conceded that whatever may be its outcome, the suit is of the utmost importance and will have an influential bearing on elections in the future. The allegations of the plaintiff in regard to the alleged wrongful counting of ballots in about two-thirds of the election districts will, it is expected, cause the opening of the ball a boxes and a recount of the votes when the same shall finally be brought into the

Judge-elec: Howell during the day secured the services of W. L. Magin-nts, A. R. Heywood and E. T. Hulaniski to look after his interests. Besides the attorneys mentioned yesterday-C. C. Richards, O. W. Powers and C. S. Varian-it is learned that H. P. Henderson is also associated in the case as counsel for Hamer. It is practically as-sured that the case will be carried to the supreme court of the state, no mat ter what the result may be in the dis-

HIGHWAYMEN HELD FOR TRIAL. The two men, Burke and Cunningham, were arraigned twice yesterday and were bound over, first in bonds of $1,000 each on the charge of holding up and robbing Mrs. Ida Jensen a week ago last Saturday night, and on the second charge, that of holding up G. A. Hinley, they were bound over in bonds of $500 each.

DEATH OF RASMUS DAHL. Death has claimed another of Ogden's aged and well known citizens, Rasmus Dahl, who died at his home on Harrisville avenue yesterday from septicemia, from which he has suf-fered during the past two weeks. The deceased was born at Malmo, Sweden Dec. 10, 1828, and emigrated to Utah 25 years ago, coming to Ogden, where has resided ever since. He was a ery industrious, energetic man and hearted and had many friends who will learn of his death with sor-row. He leaves an aged wife and everal sons and daughters to mourn his demise. The funeral services will he held at the Lynne ward meeting-nouse Friday afternoon, at 1 o'clock. His remains may be viewed at his late ome on date of funeral from 10 to

She must have rare color—not an artificial one—which only health can give, but the physical organization of our women is as sensitive and highly strung as it is susceptible to over-work and lack of care, and no period of woman's life is more critical and liable to external influence than the change from girl-hood to full physical development. At the threshold of womanhood when some girls are already thinking of the engagement ring, the health fails; or lust when a fine career on the stage opens to her, her strength breaks down and all her plans and ambitions have to be given up. She becomes nervous, high-strung, and irritable through this
